Lanschool Air Classroom Management Software gives teachers the superpowers they need to become a Hero in the digital classroom. With the ability to monitor student progress and assist without drawing attention, teachers are better equipped to guide students through all stages of learning.